

DO YOU HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY??

2011 IAN HENDERSON AWARD Thursday 15th December 2011

Hosted by the Newcastle Division

Are you a Young Engineer who has something to say on a topic related to Engineering? Then put your public speaking skills to the test and enter the Ian Henderson Award.

The Award is based on the merit of the presentation of a paper on a subject related to engineering.

This may be a social comment, technical, historical or a biographical paper. It could be based on a project, a technical visit or industrial case study.

To be eligible to enter you must be either a current student or graduate member (up to six years after graduation) of Engineers Australia and be under the age of 35 as at 31 December 2011.

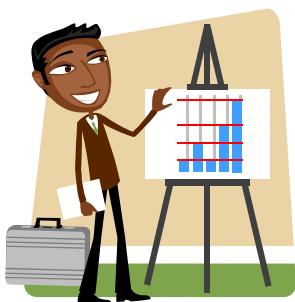

With a wide variety of engineering related topics being covered, the judges and audience will be given an insight into each discipline during the 15 minute presentation by each entrant, followed by 10 minutes question time.

The recipient of the Ian Henderson Award receives a cash prize of $600, a certificate and an inscribed bronze medal.

For more information or a copy of the Award Prospectus please contact Jo Papanicolaou on 02 4926 4440 or jpapanicolaou@engineersaustralia.org.au
