

ENGINEERS
AUSTRALIA

ENGINEERS AUSTRALIA'S NATIONAL COMMITTEE MEMBER ROLE STATEMENT

POSITION	National Committee Member
POSITION DESCRIPTION:	Office Bearer (Volunteer)
RESPONSIBLE TO	Relevant Engineers Australia College Board.
ELIGIBILITY	Must be a Graduate, Member, Fellow, or Honorary Fellow.
TERM	Two (2) years. May be re-elected or re-appointed for further consecutive terms up to a maximum of 6 years.
TIME COMMITMENT	80-200 hours each year
ROLE	The National Committees complement Colleges by serving as the detailed counterpoint to their broad discipline focus. With a view of specific aspects of major disciplines, Committees allow for unique discussions, streamlined events, and focalised advocacy. National Committees work in a shared leadership model across Engineers Australia.
RESPONSIBILITIES	The National Committees undertake a significant number of activities to achieve the purpose of each College aligned to Engineers Australia's Strategic Directions. All members of a National Committee are expected to: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Be an ambassador for Engineers Australia and support its Strategic Directions.• Fill one or more of the standing roles within the National Committee.• Undertake assigned activities by agreed dates to the best of their ability.• Contribute their experience and expertise to the activities of the Committee.• Evaluate plans and activities constructively suggesting areas for improvement and assisting where appropriate.• Represent and promote Engineers Australia and its Committee externally at business and professional events.• Foster any opportunities for collaboration with other groups within EA, e.g.: other Colleges, Technical Societies.• Have a vision for appropriate new activities.• Report on activities that are under your leadership.• Act in accordance with the Office Bearer Code of Conduct.• Follow all applicable policies, procedures, management instructions as they exist from time to time.• Meet WHS obligations and responsibilities.
SENIOR OFFICE BEARER POSITIONS	Elect National Committee members to fill the Chair and Deputy Chair positions.

