

ENGINEER OF THE YEAR SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

The online nomination process has been updated to make it easier to nominate.
Below is an outline of what must be provided with your submission:

NOMINATOR

- Nominator details (full name, EA membership number and email address)
- Select award category
- Nominee's details (full name, EA membership number and email address)
- Once the Nominator has submitted the initial nomination the Nominee will be invited to complete the submission process
- Once the Nominee has completed the submission process, the Nominator will be asked to approve the nomination before it is sent for judging

NOMINEE

- Confirm Nominee details
 - Executive Summary (max 500 words, can be pasted and copied to the online form)
 - Address each criterion (max 500 words, can be pasted and copied to the online form)
- 1. Contribution to the well-being of people and communities
Describe the way in which the nominee's engineering work has delivered benefit for individuals, groups, communities or the environment in which they reside, work, learn or enjoy recreation.
 - 2. Contribution to and promotion of the engineering profession
Give details of the nominee's activities outside his/her work which are voluntary engineering-related pursuits, or which have furthered the engineering profession.

- 3. Pioneering in the use of materials and/or methods

Describe the way in which the nominee has utilised materials or employed practices or methods which are novel, inventive and creative.

- 4. Contribution to sustainable engineering practices

Give details of how the nominee has included consideration of sustainability (social, environmental and economic) in undertaking their engineering work.

- 5. Formulation of resourceful, innovative and aesthetically appealing engineering solutions

Describe the way in which the nominee has been resourceful, innovative or entrepreneurial to solve engineering problems, develop elegant design solutions, and/or pursue ground-breaking research.

- 6. Additional notable achievements during career (optional)

Opportunity to add any notable achievements during career to the submission.

UPLOAD

- Nominee current CV including employment history and achievements
- Nominee current Biographical Information
- Short biography (100 words) and Nominee portrait photo

Email: awards@engineersaustralia.org.au

Website: engaus.org/engineeroftheyear