

John Madsen Medal previous winners

2015 – Peter K.C. Wong FIEAust CPEng; Dr Robert Barr FIEAust CPEng and Prof Akhtar Kalam FIEAust CPEng NER

The John Madsen Medal was presented to Peter K.C. Wong FIEAust CPEng; Dr Robert Barr FIEAust CPEng and Prof Akhtar Kalam FIEAust CPEng NER for the Paper titled “Generation modelling of residential rooftop photovoltaic systems and its applications in practical electricity distribution networks”.

2010 - Mr Phillip Mathers FIEAust CPEng (Ret)

The John Madsen Medal was presented to Mr Phillip Mathers FIEAust CPEng (Ret), for his outstanding examination of the history and heritage significance of the Lake Margaret Power Scheme on Tasmania's west coast, the "Lake Margaret Power Scheme: A long history and assure future".

2007 - Professor Gerard Ledwich

Professor Gerard Ledwich was the winner of the 2007 Madsen Medal for his co-authoring of the paper “A new predictive current control technique for multilevel converters” published in the AJEEE.

2006 - M Blundell

M Blundell was the winner of the 2006 Madsen Medal for his co-authoring of the paper “Experience with using cryogenic techniques for recycling arced SF6 gas for use in switchgear” published in the AJEEE.