

ENGINEERS
AUSTRALIA

Earn CPD hours

Women in engineering Eminent speakers breakfast 2017.

Hosted by: Women in Engineering Sydney

Women in Engineering Sydney invites you to attend the Annual Eminent Speakers Breakfast at the Four Seasons, Sydney. An opportunity to indulge in one of the finest breakfasts in the city while listening to our esteemed speakers who will share insights on how they navigated their careers in the industry.

SPEAKERS:

Andria Wyman-Clarke

Founder and MD of Job Toolbox

Andria Wyman-Clarke is the founder and MD of Job Toolbox which helps individuals with their career – by career planning and improving their skills for success in their job search. An HR executive with over 25 years multinational experience in industries including Defence, Aeronautics, Auto, and Pharmaceutical, Andria is passionate about ensuring women create opportunities to succeed in their careers.

(continued over page)

Date and Time:

Wednesday 11th October 2017
7am for a 7.30am start

Venue:

Ballroom 2
Four Seasons
199 George Street
Sydney NSW 2000

Tickets:

EA Members & Students: $40
Non-Members: $70
Tables of 8: $400

CPD Hours:

Eligible for 2.0 CPD hours

Sponsors:

Member of the Surbana Jurong Group

REGISTER NOW

engineersaustralia.org.au

...our esteemed speakers will share insights on how they navigated their careers in the industry.

Meet the Eminent speaker panel (continued)

Anastasia Cammaroto

Chief Information Officer, Consumer Bank, Westpac Group

Ana was appointed the Chief Information Officer for Consumer Bank, Westpac Group in March 2017. Prior to this role Ana was the Chief Information Officer at BT Financial Group. She was responsible for the technology strategy and delivery to all of BTFG's business units, which incorporate Superannuation, Insurance, Investments, Platforms, Advice and Private Wealth. Ana has also worked for Dow Corning Australia, GEC Alstom and Cegelec Australia in various engineering design and delivery roles.

Ana has a Bachelor of Engineering (Electrical) degree and a Masters in Engineering Science both completed with UNSW. Ana was the recipient of the 2016 Westpac Women of Influence award for her work on Gender Diversity and included in the Top 50 CIOs in Australia in CIO magazine. Ana is also a David Williams Fellowship recipient

Phillippa Morrissey

General Manager, Telstra

Phillippa holds an Electrical Engineering degree from Sydney University and has had an extensive career in telecommunications working for Alcatel, Honeywell and Telstra.

She is currently the General Manager, Investment Optimisation at Telstra. She works in Telstra's IT and Digital Services, Operations Business Unit. In this role she is responsible for the optimisation of Telstra's IT investment.